

#1 - The protest must remain peaceful at all costs. BLM lost over 50% of their support following the riots of 2020. Anything can be considered a weapon. Avoid the use of fireworks even for celebration. Flags with poles should be avoided if at all possible. Use paper signs or hold flags without poles as the wooden and metal flag poles can be used as weapons. Once in Ottawa, under no circumstances should anyone enter a federal building. If they open the doors and invite you inside DO NOT ENTER; it is a trap! If they offer cash money for you to enter don't go inside; that is what they want you to do. They want a repeat of January 6th but in Canada so that it gives JT the justification he needs to call in the military and build a fortress around the capitol.

#3 - The most strategic and effective way to protest once you arrive in Ottawa is absolutely nothing. Park your truck on the road, turn off the engine and let it sit there. No tow truck company would dare tow it away. And if they do get it on video and make sure everyone knows not to do business with them. Vote with your wallet. And/or drive in circles around the parliament buildings for a week while blasting your air horns. JT will be out of county when you get there, and he will have no choice but to return if all of his staffers are phoning him every minute to complain about how they can't focus because of the noise. And when everyone asks where all the food is, you tell them its sitting in a truck somewhere in Ontario. The whole world will be watching and will see the cowardice of our Prime Minister running away while his country collapses.

#2 - While I fully believe that no one in this group would incite a riot or cause violence; you must understand that paid actors are real. And can be bought for as low as $10,000 a piece. Be mindful who you associate with, who you are photographed with; who is standing next to you. If you end up in a video next to someone throwing a bottle they will find you and you will go to jail just like the proud boys did. If someone tries to suggest violence as a tactic ignore them; walk away. Or accuse them very publicly of being a paid informant. If you are in a position to restrain someone from causing damage without causing injury to them or getting hurt yourself you must do so. The police will not step in to stop a riot if one begins.

#4 - Be very careful what you say and how you say it. Even when making metaphors. We are all mad as hell and we aren't gonna take it anymore. But you need to be polite and calm and if at all possible speak without vulgarity. Last night in Calgary, Artur Pawlowski spoke of a burning fire. A fire that burned so brightly they couldn't possibly ignore it. We understand this to be a metaphor about the human spirt. He speaks in biblical terms about lions devouring hyenas, and uses sparks of fire as a metaphor for the will of the people. But the news will use anything metaphorical or not to frame this movement as a violent revolution. Now someone has the ammunition they need to write a hit piece about Artur and claim that he told truckers to burn down the parliament buildings. With a fire so great, so large "they will not be able to ignore" it. (and god forbid someone starts a fire the whole operation will be blamed on him).
